Information about the neighborhood and city (video)	While a quick google search can make Almería look a little scary, I promise it is the hidden gem of Andalucía. From the beaches of Cabo de Gata to the old center of Almería, there is always something to do here! Plus the weather isn't too bad either... The past two years living in Almería have been some of the best in my life. It has become my home away from home and I can't imagine living in any other part of Spain. There are so many clubs and activities to join in on such as language exchanges, salsa/bachata classes, volleyball, yoga classes, and soccer just to name a few.
Getting to school	CEIP Luis Siret is located in Almería capital, so if you choose to live there it should be very easy to get to school. If you live in any neighborhood near the center, you will be able to walk there within 15-20 minutes. If you choose to live near the beach in Zapillo, you will probably have to take the bus, as it would take around 35-40 minutes walking to reach the school.

Accommodation (vídeo) - Where to live in town? - Possibility of staying with a family? - Possibility of sharing a flat with other teachers or language assistants?	I used idealista and fotocasa to look for an apartment. For the past two years, I lived with other language assistants. Many times people will post in both the Facebook group and Whatsapp group looking for roommates. There is also a shared tab on idealista and fotocasa where people will post rooms available in a flat. It is a good way to find Spanish people to live with if that is something you are interested in!
